Newsletter – Summer-Fall 2012

Greetings!

Hope you are having a great summer. It sure goes by in a hurry! Before we know it fall will be here and then the Holidays just around the corner.

Sorry that you haven't heard from me for quite some time. It's been a very crazy year so far. Two surgeries and recovery times have kept me away from my studio time! Well, I'm on the mend now and ready to get back to designing and teaching. ☺ Hope you are ready to take some classes.

Coming up - I have several new and previous designs that I will be teaching. The details are below – hope you can join us!

My new address is above and you will find driving directions - at the end of this newsletter.

Mark your calendar and get your reservation in early – class size is limited.
